

How did Persivia Create Outstanding Value through Exceptional MIPS Performance for Mount Nittany Health?

Persivia's electronic reporting enabled Mount Nittany Health to transition from manual data abstraction to a new EHR with rapid go-live implementation in under 12 months

Pennsylvania

2,400

Healthcare professionals and support staff

60

Specialties

Challenges

Using electronic reporting to improve MIPS scores amidst the Coronavirus Pandemic

Generating savings along the way

Persivia's Swift Solutions

1

Persivia CareSpace®, a single Integrated platform

2

EHR system and Billing/Claims system data Extraction

3

Leveraged the Persivia Clinical Decision Support system populated by more than 30,000 evidence-based rules

Achievements

Installation delivered in 12 months

No more manual data abstraction

Increase in Quality Scores from 45%-50%

Increase in Overall Total Score 87%-91%

We were surprised to see scores improve when doing the electronic process.

Ryan McLaughlin

Mount Nittany Health's Director of Clinical Applications

Enhance Your Quality Reporting

Learn how Persivia streamlines MIPS reporting for outstanding performance results